Mr Charles Ng
Associate Director-General of Investment Promotion, Invest Hong Kong
The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China

Mr Charles Ng is the Associate Director-General of Invest Hong Kong (InvestHK), the government department responsible for attracting and facilitating foreign direct investment into Hong Kong.

Mr Ng oversees the business operations of the department's overseas offices, as well as International Business Development; Consulate & Chamber Engagement; Business Professional Services; Family Office; Innovation & Technology; Information and Communications Technology; and Transport, Logistics & Industrial sectors in the head office. The sector specialists and geographic teams under his purview offer a one-stop service to help enterprises from around the world leverage the business and investment opportunities in and via Hong Kong, and help clients establish or expand their presence in the city. In addition to promoting Hong Kong as a global leading hub and a preferred destination for Family Offices and attracting them to set up a structure in Hong Kong, the Family Office team is also in charge of promoting the new Capital Investment Entrance Scheme. Mr Ng is also an Ex-officio member of the Academy for Wealth Legacy.

Mr Ng helped set up and run OASES, the Office for Attracting Strategic Enterprises under the Financial Secretary's Office in four priority sectors: (i) life and health technology, (ii) artificial intelligence and data science, (iii) financial technology and (iv) advanced manufacturing and new energy technology. Prior to joining InvestHK, Mr Ng worked for companies in the manufacturing, trading, financial services, and banking sectors in Mauritius, Canada, and Hong Kong.

Mr Ng holds an Executive MBA degree awarded jointly by the Business School of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and the Kellogg School of Management of Northwestern University. He speaks six languages and dialects.

(as at November 2024)